	2. Appoint an Internal Auditor <sup>6</sup> who will review the adequacy of systems and controls based on legislation <sup>7</sup> and best practice <sup>8</sup>
	3. Maintain a Freedom of Information publication scheme <sup>9</sup>
THE CLERK
Role	The Clerk is the chief administrator for the council whose role includes advising councillors on legal matters, managing documentation, records, correspondence, meeting agendas and taking minutes
Legal Basis	The Clerk is the Proper Officer of the council <sup>10</sup> , responsible for the internal administration of a council
Responsibilities	The Clerk is responsible for providing advice to the council to facilitate its lawful operation in addition to administration support including:
	Managing the council's correspondence.
	<ul> <li>Updating or managing the content on the council's website.</li> </ul>
	Issuing public notices for meetings.
	Managing council records.
	Drawing up agendas and taking minutes of meetings.
	<ul> <li>Assisting with requests under the freedom of information act 2000 and the data protection act 1998.</li> </ul>
